Office of the Chancellor

Dear Students:

As you peruse the pages of this impressive Yearbook and reminisce about your experiences at WSSU, I hope you will have a wealth of fond memories to cherish and, equally important, a wealth of knowledge to apply as contributing members of society. "Ninety Years of Excellence" is more than a mere platitude . . . it is a theme which most appropriately captures our long and rich institutional heritage.

The University's proud tradition and its hopes for the future are personified in you, our students. Teachers, books, buildings and campus lawns are memorable facets of University life . . . but ultimately and always, it is your character and your conduct that define the institution.

Graduating seniors, I offer you the familiar, yet profound words of nineteenth century poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in "A Psalm of Life":

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

We are grateful to you for the positive difference you have made in the life of our University. Moreover, it is my sincere hope that WSSU has imbued you with those social and intellectual attributes that will propel you into the forefront of your chosen career.

With best regards,

Douglas Covington

Student Government Association

Dear Fellow Rams,

It seems only a few hours ago when I sat with a group of freshmen, listening to WSSU alumnus, Joseph D. Johnson. A noted attorney, Johnson described WSSU as his "mode of transportation." I was immediately impressed because I had never thought of my new school in that vein.

The other members and I have traveled far and fast since entering the university in 1979. Each experience — each stop along the journey — has been an opportunity for learning and growing. This year has been especially enlightening as we paid tribute to the institution's pioneers and observed "Ninety Years of Excellence."

Continuing students, I encourage you to keep a steady course. Remember your planned destinations, and work hard to arrive well-prepared.

To my fellow seniors I say, become active members of the Alumni Association. Remember your "mode of transportation." Let's ensure others of a chance to receive and achieve as we have.

WSSU has served us well in moving us along to where we want to be in life. With this solid foundation and God's help, our potential is virtually limitless.

Sincerely,

Christopher A. Wilson

WINSTON-SALEM STATE UNIVERSITY

Style . . . Spirit . . . Unity . . . Tradition

Style . . . Spirit . . . Tradition. You find them in abundance at Winston-Salem State University. The people, the campus, the curriculum are all illustrative of the continuing pursuit of excellence at WSSU.

Only through immense pride, great potential and unyielding perseverance could a one-room school set on a muddy hillside develop into a vibrant, urban university. In our 90th year, we applaud a great history punctuated by four name changes — from Slater Industrial Academy to Slater Industrial and State Normal School to Winston-Salem Teachers College to Winston-Salem State College and now, Winston-Salem State University. Lots of names, but the result's the same — EXCELLENCE.

Beautiful

BEAUTIFUL. That's the one word that best describes Winston-Salem, recognized as one of the nation's best living areas. A city that offers four distinct and pleasurable seasons, Winston-Salem features a broad selection of indoor and outdoor activities.

Interesting

Organizations, prominent entertainers and a multitude of planned activities keep us busy marking our calendars.

Exciting

Whether it's an artist's palette of fall scenery, a collection of fine art or an exciting sports event, you'll find it in Winston-Salem. You'll find WSSU playing a key role in the community from our attractive campus on the city's east side.

Challenging

We are granted with the luxury of individual academic help from our dedicated staff. Learning Resource Centers with their up to date learning techniques allow us to seek new horizons through mechanical and visual aids.

Quality

Quality not quantity is one of the factors of our excellent status. Being that Winston-Salem is a small close knit college, it creates a family-like atmosphere with the students and faculty.

Atmosphere

Some folks call it the campus. Others refer to it as the yard. For more than one-half of us, it's home for at least nine months out of a college year.

Expanding

Times are changing and so is Winston-Salem State University. There have been many major additions and adjustments to various roads and buildings on our campus. As a result of our hard work, our course offerings including ROTC and Cooperative Education are rapidly expanding.

WSNC-FM is at a starting point. The staff seeks to establish a tradition of quality radio in keeping with the style, tradition and excellence of other campus organizations at the university. We look forward to presenting the finest in progressive mellow sounds. Our format will also include educational, informative and public affairs programming designed to serve our listening audience.

After 90 years our university is continuing to maintain that excellent status. Designed with you in mind, Winston-Salem State University is custom made to accommodate its main concern — you!

Early Childhood

The University Early Childhood Center has been operated by the Department of Education since October 1, 1974.

The center serves as a laboratory facility where university students work under the supervision of their instructors, the center director and center staff to do projects, testing and have experiences with planning and implementing lessons and/or observations in specific areas of study. Experiences are provided which will contribute to the students understandings and competencies needed to perform and function as classroom leaders and/or other related fields they may pursue.

The center serves children ages 3-5, presently with three classrooms. An organized and planned educational program is implemented for center children. Activities are planned which will allow the child to progress at new steps of growth according to his interest and ability. Progress reports are given to parents at different intervals of the school year with one or more being at a parent-teacher conference.

All colleges have legends and ours should be no exception . . . but it is! The legend — Coach C. E. "Bighouse" Gaines, his team — the WSSU Rams (men's basketball team.)

During the Winter of 1947, "Bighouse" Gaines coached his first victory in college basketball. Many things have happened since then. Now the nation's winningest active college coach has completed his 36th season, headed toward his 700th career victory at Winston-Salem State. He went from a rookie coach at a predominantly Black college to his 1982 induction into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Gaines' last ten years have been pacesetters. On January 9, 1973 exactly ten years ago he topped 500, and almost five years ago on December 31, 1977 he hit #600.

A big man in more ways than one, the coach has compiled an impressive record not only in basketball statistics, but also in the lives of many men and women who are now leading productive lives in North Carolina and all over the nation. His former students believe that he has helped shape their lives in the field of sports and education and has also taught humanity, goodwill and respect for all men.

Just as he is heavily involved in sports and physical education and WSSU, he is also heavily involved with the community. His accomplishments as a giving compassionate human being has earned him the respect and admiration of those who know him.

Learning is finding out what you already know.

Doing is demonstrating that you know it.

Teaching is reminding others that they know just as well as you.

Richard Bach: Illusions

Coach Gaines is a learner, doer and a teacher. Coach Gaines, we the entire WSSU family, SALUTE YOU.

THE BEGINNING OF BIGHOUSE

It was at Morgan State College, that Clarence E. Gaines acquired the name "Bighouse" when another football player, himself a mere 250 pounds, exclaimed in awe, "Anybody bigger 'n me must be as big as a house, so I'm callin' you "Bighouse."

Any accomplishment is a major accomplishment to Coach C.E. "Big-house" Gaines. They are as follows:

COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTIONS:

- chairman of the Christmas Seal Campaign in Northwest North Carolina and a member of the Forsyth County Heart Association
- co-founder of the Winston-Salem Youth Baseball League and member of boards of directors for Little League Baseball and basketball
- program administrator for Summer Youth Program at WSSU involving nearly 500 children, ages 10-18
- crusade chairman for the Forsyth Unit of the American Cancer Society
- member of boards of directors of the Winston-Salem Boys Club, the Salvation Army Boys Club Council, the Winston-Salem Foundation and the boards of management, Boys Club of America and Patterson Avenue YMCA
- member of the local Alcoholic Beverage Control Board and the boards of directors of Mechanics and Farmers Bank and Amos Cottage Hospital

AWARDS ESTABLISHED IN HIS HONOR:

- Haines Hosiery Corporation CIAA Outstanding Player of the Year Award
- Winston-Salem Sportsman Club's C.E. Gaines Athletic Award
- St. Paul Methodist Church C.E. Gaines Awards

OUTSTANDING PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

- WSSU Athletic facility named in his honor — C.E. Gaines Center (1980)
- Inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame (1982)

WE ALSO SALUTE . . .

BUDDY TAYLOR, Head Athletic Trainer and assistant professor of physical education, for his dedication and outstanding service to Winston-Salem State and the entire field of Athletic Training and Therapy.

JERRY GILMORE, JR., owner of Gilmore's Funeral Home for the many contributions that he has made to Winston-Salem State's Athletic Department.

WINSTON-SALEM STATE UNIVERSITY CHOIR

MR. ROBERT MORRIS, DIRECTOR

Thirty-eight Years of Excellence

Winston-Salem State University has had a long rich tradition of bands throughout its history. This tradition began with the organization of the "Teachers College Collegians" a group organized in 1945 by Mr. H.E. Gore. Mr. Gore served for five years as its director. Well, forty years have passed and this rich tradition lives on, but the "Teachers College Collegians" have now become the "Winston-Salem State University Marching Rams." Over the years, the band has acquired an excellent reputation and is considered by many to be one of the best bands in the state.

The Marching Rams are currently under the direction of Dr. Fred Tanner with Mr. James Simpson serving as the associate director. The band began with eighty members in the Marching Band and sixty members in the concert band. At present there are one-hundred and thirty members in the marching band and fifty members in the concert band. Since the band has been in existence it has been cited on numerous occasions for its outstanding achievements.

It is evident that the pride and excellence implanted in 1945 continues to live on in 1982.

Debra Ann Allen
Business Administration/Accounting, Accounting Club (v. pres), Student Honors Organization, National Dean's List, Winston-Salem, North Carolina
"With the love and encouragement of God and my parents, I have learned that there is nothing too hard to achieve. Always set goals for yourself, then do everything to achieve them."

Rita Lynne Barrett
Psychology, Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, Student Honors Organizations, Student Alumni Relations Association, Alpha Phi Alpha Sweetheart, Richmond, Virginia
"My curiosity, determination and desire motivates me. I believe in setting realistic goals and doing any job efficiently."

Gail Fulp Bohannon
English/Mass Communications, Chairperson-Students Honor Organization, Reporter-The News Argus, SOLA-Society of Literary Arts, News Director, WSNB (radio), Walkertown, North Carolina
"I've had to pray for the desire to continue my studies. God answered my prayers and revealed that as long as I keep him with me, any goal can be achieved."

Marsha Boyd
Psychology, Psychology Club, University Marching Band (Section Leader), Pi Gamma Mu, Student Honors Organization, Washington, North Carolina
"By aspiring to reach unlimited goals, even minute progress toward these goals is a mark of success. This sense of accomplishment and self-confidence will be the key to my future success."

Jessica Lynise Bulluck
 Business Administration/Accounting, Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, Accounting Club, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Rocky Mount, North Carolina
 "I was born under the sign of Gemini, giving me a dual personality and great versatility. I enjoy photography, sewing and music. Change motivates me. My goal is to become an accountant and operate a day care center."

Delba Annett Cox
 Sociology/Social Welfare, Sociology Club, Student Alumni Association, Pi Gamma Mu, Dean's List, La Grange, North Carolina
 "God and my family have always been my motivation. Whenever I feel like I am at the end of my rope, I tie a knot and hang on because of the love, faith and determination nurtured in me."

Sandra Faye Cox
 Business Administration/Accounting, Pep Club, Circle K, Yearbook Staff, Accounting Club, Student Alumni Relations Association, Goldsboro, North Carolina
 "This university has allowed me to develop both socially and intellectually. I am now a more positive and assertive person. My parents are a motivating force because of their love and support"

Theagis Denise Dorsey
 Computer Science/Mathematics, Student Alumni Association, Honors Program, National Dean's List, High Point, North Carolina
 "The love and patience of my family and the guidance of God have instilled in me the desire to always work hard. By applying myself to the fullest capacity, the hardest tasks are made easy."

Sherry Elaine Duffy
 Special Education, Student National Education Association, Spindale, North Carolina
 "My education is extremely important to me. In order to succeed, I must believe in myself. God makes it possible for me to excel."

Charlene Elizabeth Freeman
 Early Childhood Education, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority (vice-pres), Circle K, Moore Hall Dorm Council, Student National Education Association, Lake Lure, North Carolina
 "With God's help and the inspiration of my parents, I was motivated to come to WSSU and work toward obtaining my degree in education. Helping others while enjoying myself gives me a feeling of satisfaction."

Henrietta Fulton
 Nursing, Academic Standards and Curriculum Committee, Student Nurses Association, Division of Nursing, Search Committee, Dean Division of Nursing, Winston-Salem, North Carolina
 "As an adult learner, it has been a privilege and challenge attending this outstanding university. I am appreciative of the guidance, assistance and encouragement given to me in the uniquely equipped nursing program."

Towana Gunter
 Nursing, Students Nurses Association, Junior Nursing Class Secretary, Irvington, New Jersey
 "Attending WSSU has been a rewarding experience both academically and socially. I can face challenges and accept disappointments with a better attitude. My support comes from the love of my family."

Leveda Faye Hurston
Sociology/Social Welfare, Sociology Club, Pi Gamma Mu, Spanish Club, Eden, North Carolina
"I believe in being all that I can be. My chief ambition in life is to be successful in all future endeavors."

Shirlev Tabitha Jones
Business Administration/Accounting, Queen City Club, Delta Sigma Pi, Business Fraternity, Ashland Oil Scholarship, Charlotte, North Carolina
"I find that planning is the best tool for my accomplishments. My parents, family and friends are the motivation forces in my life. Their support and advice keep me going."

Cepeda Dante Lewis
Commercial Music, Drum Major, Concert Band, Pep Band, Radio Club (v. pres), University Choir, National Dean's List, Kinston, North Carolina
"With success as my destiny, my ultimate ambition is to become a recording engineer, for such big name stars as Earth Wind and Fire. My greatest motivation in life comes from Dr. Martin Luther King's speeches."

Adrienne Michelle London
Applied Science/Business Information Systems, Data Processing Management Association (pres), National Dean's List, Greensboro, North Carolina
"I have always believed that anything worth having is worth working for. The encouragement from my family, friends and personal faith have been my motivation to sinve hard."

Marvel Yaulanda Lowe
 Biology/English, Science Club (pres), Project Strengthen (treas), Spanish Club, everything that I do. My family's love and support helped me to grow into a self-confident individual."

Elliot Darryl Lowery
 Music Education, University Choir (pres) University Ampersand Singers, Phi Mu
 Alpha Music Fraternity, Winston-Salem, North Carolina
 "I love to laugh, therefore, I love to make people laugh. While working with deaf children, I learned that a smile meant satisfaction. My strength comes from my parents and this proverb, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not to thine own understanding."

Wintred Bene' Marcheau
 Music Education, University String Ensemble, University Singers, Music Educator's National Conference, Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity, Greensboro, North Carolina
 "My parents inspired me to believe in myself. First you must believe, then you can achieve. Progress stimulates me. If I could help somebody along my way, I'll be satisfied."

Beverly Alberta McIntyre
 Political Science/Public Administration, Political Science Club, Pi Gamma Mu National Honor Society, Outstanding Young Women of America, John Wesley

 for it and it can be yours. My love for God, my family and friends motivates me."

Christopher C. Smith
 Art, Campus Outreach, Youth for Christ Fellowship, Student Religious Council, Dudley, North Carolina
 "Always dream and shoot higher than humanly possible. Don't bother just to be better than your contemporaries and predecessors; be better than yourself. Nothing in life can compare with the thrill of knowing God and knowing that he knows you."

Gail Welch
 Business Administration/Business Information Systems, Delta Sigma Theta, Cheerleader, National Dean's List, Miss Pegram Hall, Charlotte, North Carolina
 "I've learned how to be more determined and disciplined at WSSU. This was the key to my achievements. My greatest inspiration is my mother with her never ending patience and love."

Cynthia Theresa Whitted
 Art, Secretary-Student Union Program Board, Pep Club, University Ushers, Student Alumni Relations Association, Fayetteville, North Carolina

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

GROWTH describes the dominant force engulfing the Class of 1983. Led by such industrious leaders as Victoria Graves, James Estes, Cherone Austin, and Ennis Newell, we surpassed an abundance of goals set for ourselves and our class — a vibrant bundle of energy. Yet, with growth comes change. We proudly watched our "major university emerge" as we kicked off our Enhancement Program, the first capitol campaign with a $1 million gift from R.J. Reynolds, the largest corporate gift ever received by a traditionally Black institution. With these campaign funds came the new and improved: the Nursing Education Building, the major transformation of Wallace Street into a plaza, the renovation of the dormitories, and the construction of a new street beside Bickett Hall. Several new major programs were developed in computer science, accounting, chemistry, and medical technology. We witnessed the university's first graduate school, which emerged from programs at A & T State University and Appalachian State University; and with the untiring efforts of Mr. Clarence Thomas, mass communications coordinator, and his faithful senior followers, the long awaited, university's first radio station, WSNC-FM, was on the air.

But, behind the good, lurks the bad. We mourned the loss of our friends: Coach Cleo "Tiny" Wallace, James Peace, Dr. Cleveland Williams, Mike "Shakey" Robinson, and two young ladies who would have marched with the class of '83, Marquerite Campbell and Sonya McNeil.

As the dreaded "Reaganomics" hit, the university as a whole was affected. Enrollment decreased as students were no longer allotted necessary educational fundings. Cutbacks touched everyone. The consent decree was passed requiring faculty members to attain doctorates and again we were hit. Nevertheless, we saw a brighter side of our darkness. This new ruling not only stressed the importance of the perfection of education; it also created the drive to produce equal, highly competitive, ambitious students to take major positions in various fields, students who were to become the world's future leaders.

We took class trips to Carowinds and Virginia Beach and we beamed with pride as three "Mr. Rams," Curtis Hairston, Robert Blount, and Brian Womble, were picked from our class. We were entertained by such greats as Peabo Bryson, Roberta Flack, Ray Charles, and Cab Calloway, and we marvelled at the talents of outstanding shows such as A Chorus Line, Ain't Misbehavin, and Eubie.

The 1982 football season brought the first victory since four years over our hated rivals, A & T, 21-7. The wrestling team maintained its three-year consecutive CIAA Championship. Over the years such football sensations as Timmy Newsome, Daniel Jacobs, Arrington Jones, and Greg Nunn put Winston Salem State University in the limelight as they were picked for national pro football teams. Through the world of sports we were introduced to John Thompson, head basketball coach at Georgetown University, and keynote speaker for the appreciation banquet for our own Coach Clarence E. "Bighouse" Gaines, elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in May, 1982. Nearly 1,000 admirers and University friends attended.

The Class of 1983 witnessed several great "firsts" for the University. We played major roles in the development of the University's new beginnings. We took pride in the attainment of our goals and always believed in the prophecy that served as our class theme.

"Success Is Our Destiny."

ALMA MATER

As we go forth from old State U.
A song of praise we sing to you,
In praises to the memory
Of days at State University

Thy sons and daughters bring thee fame
Through knowledge which we here have gained.
Exultingly we raise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.

As we go forth from old State U.
Good leaders we will always be.
And stand for humanity,
As you've taught us, State University.

In all we do we shall proclaim
To all the world thy teaching fame,
As we go forth we praise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.

You may be rough, you may be tough, but you can't handle that S.U. stuff.

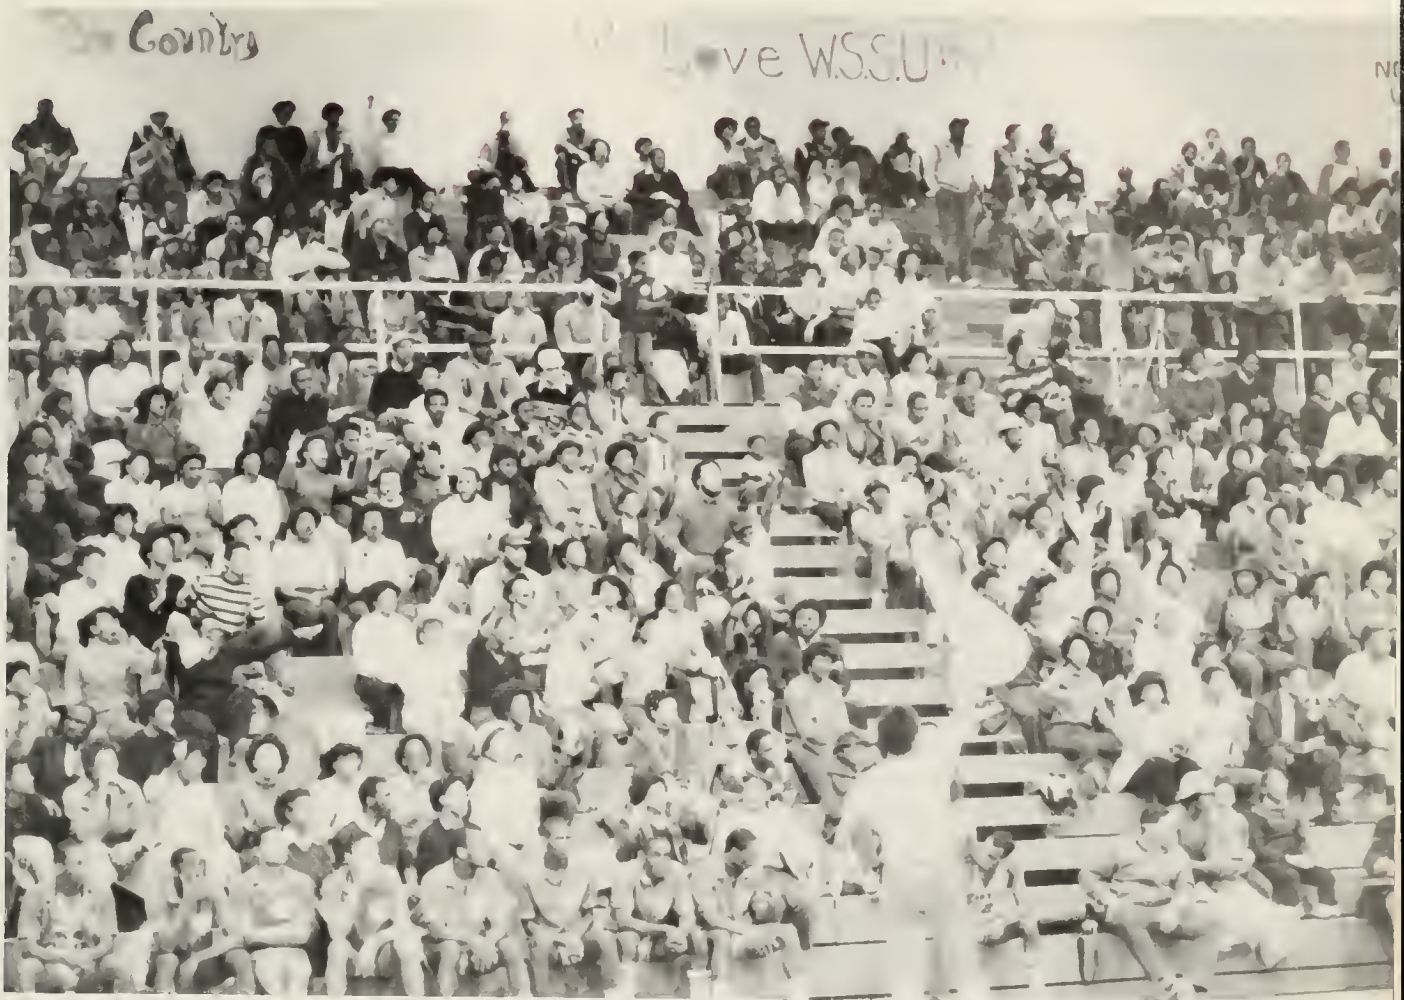

That Ram team is really hot, we've got something they ain't got we've got the soul and we've got the beat, to set those Aggies on their seats.

Be aggressive, be aggressive, b-e-a-g-g-r-e-s-s-i-v-e.

D is for dyno, m is for mite, you put it all together and you've got dynamite.

As I was going to school one day, I passed by an Aggies way. And on the corner one hundred thick, I picked up a big fat stick. You better believe it for God bless my soul, I walked away doing the Ram stroll.

Rams got a whole lot of soul — say who? we've got it, oh yes, we've got it.

Rams is our name, Basketball is our game, Red is our color, White is the other, you think we bad, we know we bad — Aggies please.

Our team is what — red hot, our team is what — red hot. Our team is r-e-d- red h-o-t hot, cause once we start we can't be stopped. Red hot.

I would not be an aggie, I'll tell you the reason why. I've been a Ram all my life and I'll be a Ram until I die. So hard to be a Ram. So hard to be a Ram. So hard to be R-A-M-S. Mighty Rams are charging through, we're gona bring defeat to you — deadly defeat.

Keep on doing, what you're doing, until you — can't do it no more, no more, no more.

S.U. get down, get down S.U.

Go big red, Go big white, do it, do it, alright, alright.

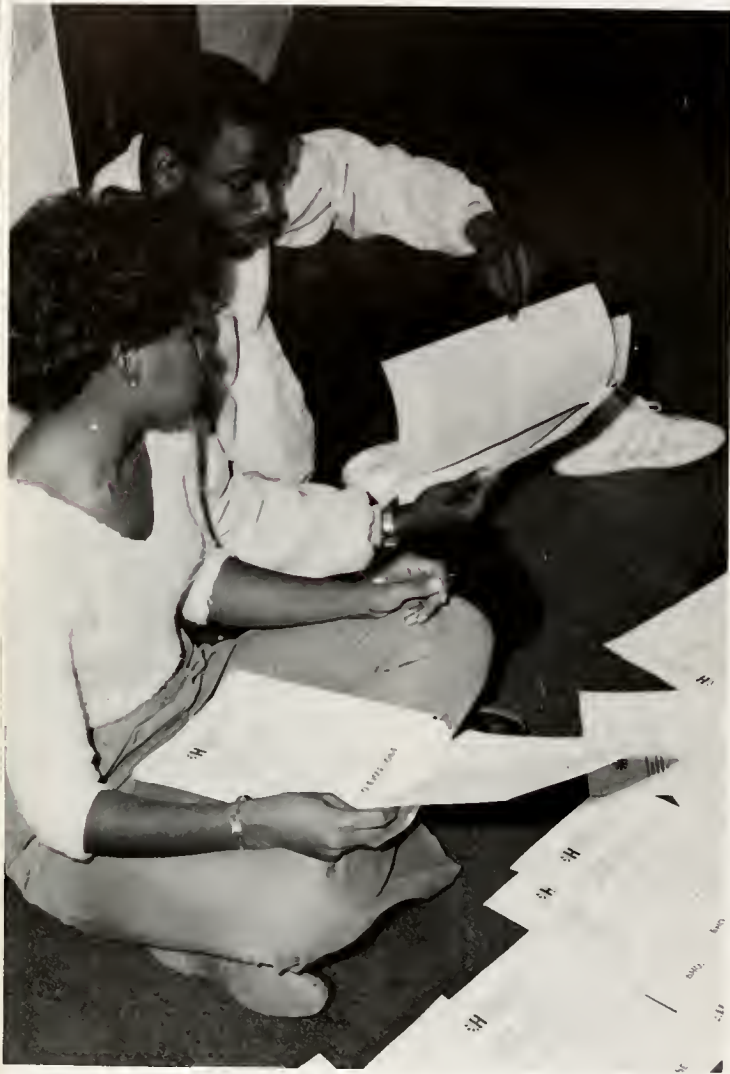

Are you ready to throw down, yes we are. Are you ready to throw down, yes we are.

The Ram Yearbook

919/761-2015

Rams,

First, let me say to next year's editor, please know everything you possibly can about putting together a yearbook — typing, photography, artwork, etc. You may be left all alone holding the bag! Of course I did not have to deal with this.

Staff, those chewing outs I gave you at each meeting, those looks that could cut you like a knife, those harsh phone calls and that double teaming from Miss Douglas and me weren't all for no reason. We were only trying to get you to put your best foot forward and settle for nothing less than the best possible book we could produce. Naturally, everything was not perfect, but your dedication and hard work are seen on every page of this year's book.

We have tried to capture the memorable events of WSSU for the year 1982-83. I hope that we have produced a book that you will cherish.

I wish congratulations and best wishes to my graduating class of 1983. Success is truly our destiny. Be strong and be proud.

I would like to acknowledge the following people who contributed their talents, advice and inspiration: "Sweet" Sylvia Sullivan (you always spoke comforting words when I needed them the most), Mrs. Corrie Jackson, Mr. Jesse Conrad (you cleaned up after us and at the same time made us laugh), Rouse, Janet M., Tweet, Paxton, and Janice (you went beyond the call of duty).

Special thanks are due to Coach "Bighouse" Gaines, Coach Mike Edwards, and Mr. Sam Cary, for without their cooperation, the sports section would not have been as successful.

To my personal contributors, Ernie and Faye, THANKS, I NEEDED YOU!

Last but certainly not least to my "mom" and "dad," Miss Cassandra V. Douglas and Mr. Beaufort O. Bailey — Although they made me want to scream at times, they were always there for guidance and support. The 1982-83 yearbook staff appreciates their sincere concern for us as well as their contributions to the book.

Most respectfully yours,

Lynette M. Davis

Kuandelea Alumni Chapter of Winston-Salem State University

We, the members of the Kuandelea Alumni, wish to congratulate all graduating seniors and we hope that your chosen careers will be self-satisfying ones. However, as you embark upon your new careers, do not forget the responsibility that you have to our institution. We must always remember that it took the sweat, tears, and hard work for past generations to provide a place of learning for us. Consequently, it is up to us to provide to our younger generations an institution of higher education that is rich in the heritage and pride of our culture.

Join with us — Kuandelea Alumni, in making sure that Winston-Salem State remains "OUR" school.
